

A fresh start

If you've ever considered making a fresh start and practising procedural medicine in regional NSW, now is the time to act.

You can now undertake procedural training in Obstetrics, Anaesthetics, Emergency Medicine or Mental Health and relocate to some of Australia's most sought after towns. The procedural training positions are fully sponsored by NSW Health.

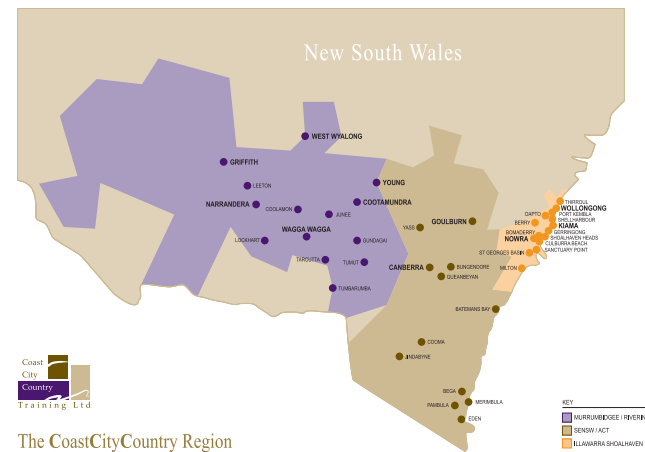

Enjoy the high life in Tumut, see why Young is the pick of the crop or make an appointment with the beaches of The South Coast. When you choose to train with Coast City Country Training, the choice is yours.

Right now opportunities to practice exist in Young, Tumut and on the South Coast.

Not quite ready to make the move?

CoastCityCountry Training will have opportunities available in other centres in the next few years.

Tel: (02) 6933 5205 Fax: (02) 6933 5204
 PO Box 5695, Wagga Wagga NSW 2650
 Harvey House
 Docker St. Wagga Wagga NSW 2650
 Email: ccctraining@bigpond.com

www.ccctraining.org

Give your career a breath of fresh air

Undertake procedural training in regional NSW with CoastCityCountry Training

Discover Greater Possibilities

“Make an appointment with the beach”

Dr. Les Roberts-Thompson

In the beautiful coastal town of Moruya you can have the sand beneath your toes just a few minutes from your practice. Situated on the banks of the sparkling Moruya River, this is a town of historic buildings and warm ocean breezes.

If you're considering a career in procedural medicine, now you can train in obstetrics at Moruya Hospital, or anaesthetics at either Goulburn Hospital or Bega Hospital, then perhaps relocate to Moruya. Your training will be fully sponsored by NSW Health and you'll be supervised by some of the finest specialists in the region.

It's a sea change worth making.

Moruya

“Discover why Young is pick of the crop”

Dr. Bill Meagher

Famous for its delicious red cherries, it's not hard to see why Young is one of the most popular towns in the region.

Centrally located in the heart of the 'Hilltops Wine and Food Region', Young is a thriving retail centre which also offers an abundance of local cool climate wines and produce. Its wineries, orchards and many festivals that make this a wonderful place to live for the young and the young at heart.

Now you can undertake procedural training in Obstetrics or Anaesthetics at either Goulburn or Wagga Wagga, fully sponsored by NSW Health then relocate to Young to enjoy everything this warm, vibrant town has to offer.

Once settled, you'll have the support of a well developed professional network and access to a new $16.6 million, 32 bed hospital, all just two hours drive from Canberra and four hours drive from Sydney.

It's an opportunity not to be missed!

Young

“Experience the high life in Tumut”

Dr. Paul Berbior

The Tumut region features some of the most spectacular alpine landscapes in Australia, but this town also offers you the chance to take your medical career to a higher level.

You can now undertake 12 months procedural training in anaesthetics at Wagga Wagga Base Hospital under specialist supervision, and then relocate to Tumut upon completion of your training. Best of all, your training position will be fully sponsored by NSW Health.

Once you're established in Tumut, you'll discover a thriving local community just two hours drive from Canberra and an hour from ski fields. Enjoy fresh produce from local orchards, lakes, rivers and farms, take a walk through fairytale forests, dine with friends at a local restaurant or take part in the Annual Falling of the Leaf Festival. Watch first hand as this thriving town continues to grow before your eyes.

In Tumut you'll feel on top of the world.

Tumut